or for a Company (as defined in Section 3) which will use the land for the construction of some work likely to prove useful to the public, that it is for the Govt to determine whether the proposed acquisition will serve a public purpose or not and that the Civil Courts have no jurisdiction to question the decision of Govt on this point.

3. The Govt Advocate adds that the main points to be considered in the present case are two, viz (a) Whether the Sangha is a registered Company and (b) to what use will the land be put when acquired, and states that he has no information on these points. Further, he says that if the building is for a School or Hostel, the acquisition of the land may be considered to be for a public purpose and that if it is used for merely holding the meetings of the Sangha, the acquisition cannot be justified and concludes by adding that "if the Govt were to sanction the acquisition without a guarantee that the proposed building will be used for bona fide educational purposes alone, similar applications will be coming in from numerous similar Sanghas at no distant date."

4. The information on the points referred to by the Govt Advocate is not available in this office. Draft calling for the information is submitted.

The Dy Commr suggests the grant of lands to the east of the Bangalore Hankanhalli road but it is not clear what the lands are that are referred to, whether they are in private holding & what they will cost to acquire. The Sangha, I suppose, expects substantial help from Govt & one item in such aid is the grant of the tank bed free of cost. If the same other site is selected it is doubtful if any large area of Govt waste land will be conveniently available for grant to the Sangha. It seems to be a matter of doubtful expediency to let the tank bed lie unused & make a money grant from state funds to the Sangha to acquire other land.

It is for consideration whether an association registered under the Societies Registration Regulation, of 1904 comes within the definition of a company as defined in section 3 (e) of the Land Acquisition Regulation - The definition is the same as that contained in the British Land Acquisition Act of 1894, with the addition of the words "under the law for the time being in force relating to Companies in the territories of Mysore, or". If these words are taken in a general sense so as to include an association registered under the Regulation of 1904, (it seems only reasonable that they should be so construed), the Sangha comes within the definition of a Company as defined in the Land Acquisition Regulation

Sir,

With reference to the Wakilgar meeting held in Bangalore during the last Dusserah, it was decided to obtain about 30 acres of land on which to erect buildings and start an agricultural farm and I have been asked to select land for the same in the immediate neighbourhood of Bangalore and I now beg to propose that the land next to the City Institute at the Fort Gate be acquired and that the whole of the Gutta--halli tank bed now in the Basavangudi Extension be made over to the Association for the purposes of farming I am of opinion that this site would be the best for building as it is very near the school now being built in the fort and which the stu--dents could take advantage The tank bed is not required for building purposes and it would be better to keep this as a [illegible] between the Fort and the Extension. The facilities for obtain--ing manure would be good for the farm, the drainage from which would not interfere with any houses below the present tank If it is finally decided by Government to hand over this land to the Association, I will have plans and estimates duly prepared

Office of the Government Advocate

Dated 28th December 1906.

From

The Government Advocate in Mysore

To

The Secretary to the Government of H H.the Maharaja of Mysore,Revenue and General Departments

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.5485 Mul 242-06-3 dated 22nd ,--December 1906,I have the honor to state that the Land Acquisition Regulation authorises the acquisition of a land by Government for a public purpose or for a company (as defined in section 3 of the Regulation)which will use the land "for the construction of some work" "likely to prove useful to the public" It is for the Government to determine, under the provisions of section 41,whether the proposed acquisition will serve any -- public purpose or not The Civil Courts have no jurisdiction to question the decesion of the Government on this point

2 The main points for consideration are -

(a) Whether the Vakkaligar Sangha is a registered co - pany and what are its objects?

(b) To what use will the land be put when acquired?

3. I have information whether the Sangha is registered

From the news paper reports of the speaches made at the Vakkaligar Conference held at Bangalore, I gather that the object of the Sangha is to promote the interest of its members by helping their education and by making proper representation of their grievances to Government with a view to obtain redress. The Sangha is undoubtedly sectarian, though the Vakkaligars form a very large section of the population.

4 As to the second point also I have no information. If it be intended to build upon it a school or ostel for the use of the Vakkaligar boys, I am of opinion that the purpose may be considered a public one, but if the building on the land is to be used merely as a place for holding the meetings of the Sangha, the acquisition cannot, I am afraid, be justified under the regulation Moreover, if the Government were to sanction the acquisition without a guarantee that the proposed building will be used for bona-fide educational purposes alone, similar applications will be coming in from numerous similar Sanghas at no distant date.

I have the honor to be the use of the Sulthanchi Tank bed will not interfere with the health and convenience of the adjoining parts of the City, I have the honor to state that this is a question for the Revenue

Surgeon to decide by his personal inspection of the locality. But I could see no reason why it should interfere as observed by you as the houses are at some distance and other common parks situated in the middle of towns, such as the Hyde Park in London for instance, receive such meaning without any detriment effect to the neighbourhood.

A Copy given to Director of Agriculture for information

2 I am afraid the observation intended to differentiate the two items of land applied for by the Vakkaligar Sangha viz private land and the tank and kar bed taken over by the Sangha, both as they have already passed a resolution thanking Government for proposing to give the Gurukkals Jankkad free of cost Vide my letter No 612 of 6 January 1930.

A copy of the order under reply is however forwarded to the Secretary of the Vakkalipad Sangha for information.

Letter no R 541 dated 16th August 1907, from the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore District to the Secretary Vakkaligar Sangha Bangalore

With reference to the 3rd resolution of the Proceedings of the Vakkaligar Sangha meeting held on the 27th January 1907 communicated in your letter no 4 of the 29th idem in re the acquisition of about 10 acres of land south of the City Institute in Bangalore at the cost of the Sangha, I have the honor to intimate to you that there are only 8 acres and 18 guntas of land available there at and the area comprises of 3 Survey numbers

(1) Survey no 136 garden measuring 2 acres 34 guntas belonging to one Chikkamma and he wants Rs 10,000 for his land

(2) Survey no 137 dry measuring 1 acre 27 guntas belongs to one Hariyappa who claims Rs 107 at 1 rupee a square yard

(3) Survey no 14 garden measuring

J Polepalli Ramaswamy Chetty and he is absent at Madras.

But a Panchayat connected for the valuation of these lands, have opined that Rs 4000, Rs 1596 and Rs 2000 respectively may be given for these sites including the cost of wells and trees therein existing thereon. Their valuation is based upon the present market rate as ascertained from the registers of the Registration Department.

It will be seen that there is a considerable difference between the value the Panchayat to estimate and the price demanded by the owners and unless it is known for what amount the Sangha is prepared to purchase these lands, no further procedure could be adopted in the matter. No intimation has been received till now whether the Sangha is registered under the Indian Companies Act as per 2nd resolution of the Proceedings already referred to.

Sir,

Adverting to correspondence ending with this Office letter No 87 dated 28th August 1907, in re the lands proposed to be acquired for Vokkaligar Sangha, I have the honor to state as follows -

1 The President of the Vokkaligar Sangha states in his letter No 229 dated 18th December 1907 (Copy enclosed) that the Sangha was registered under the Societies Registration Regulation No III of 1904, on the 9th September 1907 in the Office of the Registrar of the Joint Stock Companies in Mysore

2 The Sangha requires the entire stretch of land South of the City Institute which includes 3 private holdings, a part of the bed of the karanji tank and a portion out of the land in Survey No 25 of Karanji Bisanahalli village since acquired for the Basavangudi Extension, forming a compact block bounded by the City Institute on the North and Public Road on all the three other sides The total extent measures 36 acres and 6 guntas as particularized in the accompanying statement. The Sangha is willing to pay Rs.7,956 (Sic 7,596/-) for the three private holdings being the value estimated by a Panchayet, provided the adjoining Government land i e , the tank bed and that portion of Survey No 25 of Karanji Bisanhalli situated between

between the three public roads, is made over to the Sangha free of cost. This part of the tank bed measures 32 acres and 35 gun-tas and contains a well and some drains which carry the storm water to the Kempambudhi Tank.

3. A sketch of the locality shewing the Kharanji tank bed etc , proposed to be given to the Sangha is herewith sent as -- requested.

4. I beg to invite your attention to your No.6867/M1 248-06-6 dated 6th February 1907 and to my predecessor Mr.Sparke's reply thereto in the matter of sanitation of the adjoining parts of the City on account of heavy manuring etc., required for the intended agricultural farm by the Sangha

5. I differ from my predecessor and think that the health and convenience of the adjoining parts will certainly be inter-fered with by the establishment of the Farm in question. Further the formation of the new extension now in progress comes in close contact with the land which is intended to be given over to the Sangha Mr.Sparkes in his letter referred to above quotes as an instance the Hyde Park in London as not being detremental to the health of the neighbourhood notwithstanding the heavy manuring there I think that an Agricultultural Farm and a Park are wide-ly different in their effects as regards interference with the public health Though there is manuring in both, the former as not, I believe , the good effects arising from the latter The parks are specially intended for the improvement of health

6. The piece of land in question is a dreary tract between Basavangudi and Fort and is the centre of the three extensions viz., Chamrajpet, Basavangudi and the one now springing up between the two and also the Fort Under such circumstances , would in my opinion, be a good idea to convert this portion a park, whereby not only the health of the neighbourhood will rate

materially improved but also will the dismal and dreary dist between the Fort and Basavangudi be beautified

7. I therefore oppose to the granting of the land to Sangha for the purpose prayed for

8. From the considerations of the Sangha itself I bel the site now selected would not in the long run serve their -pose, as on three sides of it the new extensions are sprin up. An Agricultural Farm in the hands of an agricultural cl of people who have formed themselves into a Constitutional A -tion, will as a matter of course be extended as opportuniti occur This the Association will not be able to do at the p now selected.

9. I would under the above circumstances recommend t other piece of land may be granted to them to the east of Bangalore - Kankanhalli Road where any extent of land can be for the purpose.

10. I may here invite your attention by adding that Bangalore Municipal Council have also resolved to convert t under reference into a park.

11 The people of Bangalore also want a Park at the pl

Letter No.229 dated the 18th December 1907 from Mr. T. Byrappah, President of the Vokkaligara Sangha, to the Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District.

With reference to your letter No R.541 dated 16th August '07 and subsequent reminders thereto, enquiring whether the Sangha has been registered and what amount it is prepared to pay for the purchase of the private lands specified therein, I have the honor to state that the Sangha was registered under the Societies Regis-tration Regulation No III of 1904 on 9th September 1907 in the Office of the Registrar of the Joint Stock Companies in Mysore

As for the private lands, the Executive Council have resolved at the meeting held on the 15th instant with Mr B.Kempanna, Vice-President, in the chair that you may be requested to acquire them for the valuation made by the Panchayetdars, that the amount of valuation viz., Rs.7,956/- be paid by the Sangha and that, consi-dering the present financial position of the Sangha, it pleads its inability to pay anything more than the aforesaid sum on any account

I may be allowed further to state that the Sangha can only purchase the private lands in question for the abovementioned provided the Government land adjoining it which comprises the Guttahalli tank bed is kindly made over to it free of cost As already recorded in the Sangha's Resolution copy of which was forwarded with this Office letter No 4 dated 27th January 1907 the entire plot of ground required by the Sangha is the stret of land which is bounded on the North by the City Institute, the South by the North Main Road, on the East by the Fort Main Road and on the West by the old Basavangudi Road

In these circumstances, I request that a recommendation kindly made to Government for the acquisition of the private for the sum specified above and for the grant of Government adjoining it free of cost

Sir,

With reference to your docket No 11088 dated 1st May 1908 enquiring
No. 248 06-12
if the Vakkaligar Sangha has been registered as a company as defined in section 36(1) of the Land Acquisition Regulation VII of 1894, I have the honor to forward herewith copy of letter No- 345 dated 29 may 1908 from the General Secretary of the Vakkaligar Sangha in which he says that the Sangha has been registered under the Societies Registration Regulation III of 1904

which is one of the laws in force relating to companies in Mysore and as such, the Sangha is a company within the meaning of section 3(e) of the Land Acquisition Regulation and therefore is entitled to the benefits of the provisions of that Regulation

I have the honor to be,

Letter No- 345 dated 29 may 1908 from the General Secretary of the Vakkaligara Sangha, Bangalore to the Dy Commissioner, Bangalore District

With reference to your letter
No- R 3644 dated 16 May 1908 enquiring whether the Sangha has been registered under the Indian Companies Act as defined in section 3(e) of the Land Acquisition Regulation No- VII of 1894, I have the honor to state as follows. —

Section 3(e) of the Land acquisition Regulation referred to states that the expression 'company' means a company registered under the law for the time being in force relating to companies in the territories of Mysore or under the Indian Companies Act 1862 etc

The Sangha has c...

under the Societies Registration Regulation No III of 1904 which, as no doubt, is one of the laws at present in force relating to companies in Mysore

In section 2 of the aforesaid Regulation provision is made to file the memorandum of Association of every society registered under it with the Registrar of the Joint Stock Companies in Mysore This course the Sangha has adopted and consequently it seems to have been sufficiently recognised as a company

Section 26 of the Mysore Companies Regulation provides for the registry of charitable societies and it does not seem improbable although it is not expressly stated, that the Societies Registration Regulation, providing as it does for the registry of societies with objects similar to those mentioned in section 26 of the Mysore Companies Regulation, was intended to be a subsidiary Regulation framed to meet the requirements of that Section

For the foregoing reasons there is apparently no room for hesitation to accept that the Sangha registered as such under the Societies Registration Regulation is a company within the meaning of clause (c) of Section 3 of the Land Acquisition Regulation and therefore entitled to the benefits of the provisions of that Regulation

Under these circumstances, I request that you will be kind enough to move Government to order the acquisition of the lands applied for by the Sangha under the Imperial Land acquisition Regulation No. VII of 1894 at a very early date
